ROSENDAHL IS A SPONSOR IN THE RESTAURANTS
AT THE ROYAL DANISH THEATRE

Rosendahl is Danish design created to be used every day for all occasions. The brand represents simple and stylish design, focusing on functionality and ease of use in tableware, interior design and gift items.

Rosendahl is proud to be sponsoring the Royal Danish Theatre. The sponsorship began when the Play House was built in 2008 and we were proud to become part of the new, extraordinary house. We believed that the theatre's ambition about making art accessible to everybody, was highly welcome innovation. The theatre wants to make art accessible to a broader audience, just as Rosendahl wishes to make design accessible to everybody.

In the new cooperation between the Royal Danish Theatre, Meyers and Rosendahl, Rosendahl has become an integrated part of the experience in all three houses, as the functional, beautiful design now embellishes all of the theatre restaurants.
